

CPPGroup Plc: Terms of Reference: Audit Committee

Membership

1. Members of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board in consultation with the Chairman of the Audit Committee. The Committee shall consist of not less than three members, all of whom shall be non-executive directors (which includes the Chairman). At least one member of the Committee should have recent and relevant financial experience.
2. The Chairman of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board. In the absence of the Committee Chairman and/or an appointed deputy, the remaining members present shall elect one of their number present to chair the meeting.
3. The quorum necessary for the transaction of business shall be three members. A duly convened meeting of the Committee at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all or any of the authorities, powers and discretions vested in or exercisable by, the Committee.

Attendance at Meetings

4. Only members of the Committee have the right to attend Committee meetings. However, other individuals such as the Chairman of the Board if he/she is not a member, the Executive Directors and the Group Head of Internal Audit may be invited to attend all or part of any meeting as and when appropriate. The external auditors will be invited to attend meetings of the Committee on a regular basis.
5. The Committee may also request the attendance of any employee whose participation will enhance the discussion of any particular agenda item. The Committee will meet with the external auditors and the Head of Internal Audit without the Executive Directors present at least annually.
6. The Company Secretary shall be the Secretary of the Committee.

Frequency and Notice of Meetings

7. Meetings shall be held not less than three times per year at appropriate times in the reporting and audit cycle and otherwise as required. Meetings shall be called by the Secretary of the Committee at the request of any of its members or at the request of external or internal auditors if they consider it necessary.
8. Unless otherwise agreed, notice of each meeting confirming the venue, time and date together with an agenda of items to be discussed, shall be forwarded to each Committee member, any other person required to attend and all other non-executive directors, no fewer than five working days prior to the meeting date. Supporting papers shall be sent to Committee members and to other attendees as appropriate, at the same time or as soon as possible thereafter.

Authority

9. The Committee is authorised by the Board, at the Company's expense (to the agreed limit), to investigate, or arrange an investigation of, any activity within its terms of reference. In performing its duties, the Committee is authorised to seek any information it requires from any employee and all employees are directed to co-operate with any request made by the Committee.
10. The Committee is authorised by the Board, at the Company's expense (to the agreed limit), to obtain outside legal or other independent professional advice and to secure the attendance of third parties with relevant experience and expertise if it considers this necessary.

Reporting

11. The Secretary shall minute the proceedings and resolutions of all meetings of the Committee, including recording the names of those present and in attendance. The Secretary shall ascertain, at the beginning of each meeting, the existence of any conflicts of interest and minute them accordingly. The Secretary shall circulate the minutes of meetings of the Committee to all members of the Board.

Objectives

12. The Committee's objectives will include: monitoring the integrity of the Group's reporting systems, examining management's processes for ensuring the appropriateness and effectiveness of internal controls, reviewing arrangements in respect of whistleblowing and fraud, overseeing the functioning of the Internal Audit function and overseeing the relationship between management and the external auditors.

Duties and Responsibilities

13. The Committee shall carry out the duties and responsibilities detailed in sections 14-25 below for the Company, the Group's subsidiary undertakings and the Group as a whole, as appropriate.

Financial Reporting

14. The Committee shall monitor the integrity of the financial statements of the Group, including its annual and half yearly reports, interim management statements, preliminary results' announcements and any other formal announcement relating to its financial performance, reviewing significant financial reporting issues and judgements which they contain. The Committee shall also review summary financial statements, significant returns to regulators and any financial information contained in certain other documents, such as announcements of a price sensitive nature.
15. The Committee shall review:
 - 15.1 The consistency of, and any changes to, accounting policies both on a year on year basis and across the Group;
 - 15.2 The methods used to account for significant or unusual transactions where different approaches are possible;
 - 15.3 Whether the Group has followed appropriate accounting standards and made appropriate estimates and judgements, taking into account the views of the external auditor;
 - 15.4 The clarity of disclosure in the Group's financial reports and the context in which statements are made; and
 - 15.5 All material information presented with the financial statements, such as the operating and financial review and the corporate governance statement (insofar as it relates to the responsibilities of the Committee).

Internal Controls

16. The Committee shall:
 - 16.1 Keep under review the effectiveness of the Group's internal controls based on reports from management and Internal Audit; and
 - 16.2 Review and approve the statements to be included in the annual report concerning internal controls.

Whistleblowing and Fraud

17. The Committee shall:

- 17.1 Review the Group's arrangements for its employees to raise concerns, in confidence, about possible wrongdoing in financial reporting or other matters. The Committee shall ensure that these arrangements allow proportionate and independent investigation of such matters and appropriate follow up action;
- 17.2 Review the Company's procedures for preventing and detecting fraud; and
- 17.3 Review the Company's procedures for the prevention of bribery.

Internal Audit

18. The Committee shall:

- 18.1 Monitor and review the effectiveness of the Company's Internal Audit function in the context of the Company's overall assurance system;
- 18.2 Approve the appointment and removal of the Group Head of Internal Audit, who shall be accountable to the Audit Committee;
- 18.3 Consider and approve the remit of the Internal Audit function and ensure it has adequate resources and appropriate access to information to enable it to perform its function effectively and in accordance with the relevant professional standards. The Committee shall also ensure the function has adequate standing and is free from management or other restrictions; and
- 18.4 Review and assess the annual Internal Audit plan, review all reports by the Group Head of Internal Audit and monitor management's responsiveness to the findings and recommendations of Internal Audit.

External Audit

19. The Committee shall:

- 19.1 Consider and make recommendations to the Board, to be put to shareholders for approval at the Annual General Meeting, in relation to the appointment, re-appointment and removal of the Group's external auditor. The Committee shall oversee the selection process for new auditors and if an auditor resigns the Committee shall investigate the issues and decide whether any action is required;
- 19.2 Oversee the relationship with the external auditor including (but not limited to):
 - 19.2.1 Approval of their remuneration, whether fees for audit or non-audit services and that the level of fees is appropriate to enable an adequate audit to be conducted;
 - 19.2.2 Approving their terms of engagement, including any engagement letter issued at the start of each audit and the scope of the audit;
 - 19.2.3 Assess annually their independence and objectivity taking into account relevant professional and regulatory requirements and the relationship with the auditor as a whole, including the provision of any non-audit services;
 - 19.2.4 Satisfy itself that there are no relationships (such as family, employment, investment, financial or business) between the auditor and the Company (other than in the ordinary course of business);

- 19.2.5 Monitor the auditor's compliance with relevant ethical and professional guidance on the rotation of audit partners, the level of fees paid by the Group compared to the overall fee income of the firm, office and partner and other related requirements;
 - 19.2.6 Assess annually their qualifications, expertise and resources and the effectiveness of the audit process which shall include a report from the external auditor on their own internal quality procedures;
 - 19.3 Put the audit services contract out to tender at least once every ten years;
 - 19.4 Meet with the external auditor at least once per year without management present to discuss their remit and any issues arising from the audit;
 - 19.5 Review and approve the annual audit plan and ensure that it is consistent with the scope of the audit engagement;
 - 19.6 Review the findings of the audit with the external auditor including but not be limited to, the following:
 - 19.6.1 A discussion of any major issues which arose during the audit;
 - 19.6.2 Any accounting and audit judgements;
 - 19.6.3 Levels of errors identified during the audit;
 - 19.7 Monitor the external auditor's compliance with relevant ethical and professional guidance on the rotation of audit partners, the level of fees paid by the Group compared to the overall fee income of the firm, office and partner and other related requirements; and
 - 19.8 Assess annually their qualifications, expertise and resources and the effectiveness of the audit process which shall include a report from the external auditor on their own internal quality procedures.
20. The Committee shall also review the effectiveness of the audit and in particular:
- 20.1 Review any representation letter(s) requested by the external auditor before they are signed by management;
 - 20.2 Review the management letter and management's response to the auditor's findings and recommendations; and
 - 20.3 Develop and implement a policy on the supply of non-audit services by the external auditor, taking into account any relevant ethical guidance on the matter.

Reporting Responsibilities

- 21. The Committee Chairman, or in his absence another Committee member, shall report formally to the Board on its proceedings after each meeting on all significant matters within its duties and responsibilities.
- 22. The Committee shall make whatever recommendations to the Board it deems appropriate on any area within its remit where action or improvement is needed.
- 23. The Committee shall compile a report to shareholders on its activities to be included in the Group's annual report.
- 24. The Committee Chairman shall attend the Annual General Meeting prepared to respond to any shareholder questions on the Committee's activities.

Other Matters

25 The Committee shall:

- 25.1 Have access to sufficient resources in order to carry out its duties, including access to the company secretariat for assistance as required;
- 25.2 Be provided with appropriate and timely training, both in the form of an induction programme for new members and on an ongoing basis for all members;
- 25.3 Give due consideration to all applicable laws and regulations, the provisions of any recognised Corporate Governance Code adopted by the Board, and the requirements of the London Stock Exchange's rules for AIM companies, as appropriate; and
- 25.4 Be responsible for co-ordination of the internal and external auditors.

Approved by the CPPGroup Plc Board on 22nd July 2024
